

AAU YOUTH SERIES

This series is designed for developmental teams that would like to compete in an inexpensive format. This will be a series of 3 tournaments held on selected Sundays from January through March.

All club, coaches, & players must have an AAU Membership to participate in any of the AAU Youth Series Tournaments.

Dirty Dozen

The first tournament is meant to be a "PREP" tournament.

- It is a chance for Players and Coaches to learn the skills needed for tournament play such as; Refereeing, substitutions, keeping score, lining up, changing sides of the court, rotations, etc.
- Officiating is relaxed.
- Coaches are still allowed to assist on the court within reason.
- Coaches will referee(R1)
- We record score but not for seeding purpose.

Queen of Heart Challenge

The second tournament begins the more competitive part of the series.

- Players are expected to know how to correctly rotate, sub in & out, keep score, call lines, change sides of the court, etc.
- Coaches are still allowed to assist on the court within reason.
- Officiating is according to the rules.
- Coaches will referee(R1)
- Scores will be recorded for seeding purpose for the Shamrock Showdown.

Shamrock Showdown

The third tournament will AAU guidelines equal to competitive club tournaments. USAV/AAU Rules.

- This is the Championships of the AAU Youth Series.
- Players are expected to know all nuances of the game. Officiating is according to the rules.
- Coaches will referee(R1)
- The most competitive of the series with awards for winning teams in each division.
- Awards will be given to 1st and 2nd place team in each age division.

- This event is licensed by the Amateur Athletic Union of the U.S., Inc.
