BWSP

Featuring Queens and Kings of Indoor T&F Championship Series

MEET RULES

The Championship Series encompasses 4 Queen & 4 King Competitions, following a championship style model. Athletes earn points at each of the series meets to qualify for the final of their competition. Competitors in Open and Master division must compete in 3 meets to qualify for Series Championship Award.

Each of the competitions are staged two (2) times before the final. At meets 1, 2 and 3 of the series, athletes are awarded 10, 8, 6, 4, 2 or 1 points for ranking 1st to 6th respectively with 1st, 2nd and 3rd place finishers receiving awards for every event contested at each meet. In case of a tie, the best legal performance of the qualification phase wins.

The winner at the Final of Queen & King Competition will become " Series Champion" and be awarded a Special Series Award. Scoring events for each meet:

MEET #1) All running and field events will be ran as scheduled with only the following events scored:

- 55m, 200m, 400m 800m, 1500rw and LJ.

MEET #2) All events will be ran as scheduled with only the following events scored:

- 55m, 55h, 100m, SP, HJ, 1500m and 1500rw.

MEET #3) All events will be ran as scheduled with only the following events scored:

- 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, SP, HJ and LJ.

MEET #4 SERIES CHAMPIONSHIP) All events will be ran as scheduled and scored (added to previous scores earned in meets 1, 2, and 3) to crown our Series Champions. With this format we will have approx. 132 Individual Champions!

Meet director will make all final decisions regarding eligibility and awards. Any competitor found competing in the wrong age division for any event will be disqualified from competition at any stage in the meet when such infraction occurred. If a competitor proceeds through the finals of a competition and it is subsequently determined they competed in the wrong age division, all prizes/awards will be revoked. If an athlete is disqualified, all earned points will be forfeited and all places below that of the disqualified athlete will be moved up by one place. All protests will cost $75, are non-refundable regardless of outcome and must be submitted in writing with the required cash fee to the meet director no more than 30 minutes after event in question is finished.
