Plan for a full day if you have not taken the online course previously. The officials' clinic will begin at 9:00 with completing all necessary forms to become an official. This is a new process. Then we will take the online officials' clinic as a group allowing for discussion as we go. Following the online course, depending on the time, we will review videos of hand signals.

Following lunch, we will practice hands-on scenarios, working both the center and corner judge positions.

The day will end between 3 and 4 depending on the number of officials and athletes.
