All Field Events begin at 9:00 AM on Saturday and Sunday.

- Divisions will compete in the order shown in the table above, from left to right. When one division finishes, then the next division will be called. Athletes must check-in on the first call.
- In the throws and the horizontal jumps, each competitor will have four attempts. Throwing events implement specifications for each division are shown in the table.
- In the High Jump, within a division, the bar will not move down for any reason except a tie for first place. Pole Vault athletes must certify their weight and pole specifications prior to the competition.
- Athletes who must leave for another event must check-out with the Event Official. If requested by the athlete, they may take attempts in succession. If excused during a round the athlete must return prior to the conclusion of that round or forfeit remaining attempt.

2021 AAU Indiana District Track & Field Qualifier

- Event Schedule: The meet starts at 9:00 AM on Saturday & Sunday. There is no time schedule for individual events. The meet will run on a rolling schedule. See the order of event later in this document.
- Event Calls: It is the athletes' responsibility to hear the calls and report to the event venue on the first call for their division. Field event athletes should report directly to the field event venue, and track event athletes should report to the clerking area. The meet will not delay. There will be no rerun, or add for any athlete who is tardy to check-in. There will be absolutely no exceptions.
- Protest: Protest must be submitted in writing to the Meet Director within 30 minutes after the infraction. The fee for protest is $100, which will be returned if the protest is upheld. The board of appeals, which is appointed by the District Director, will render a decision.
- Timing: Fully Automatic Timing (FAT) Services and Data Services, will be provided by Quentin Wilson.
